2. Name

The name of the association is " Bio-based and Biodegradable Industries Association (BBIA) Ltd"

3. Purposes

The purposes of the Association are:—

- (1) To be the leading body for the bio-based and biodegradable chemicals and products manufacturing industry in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland representing Members in the promotion of and advocacy for Members' products and materials.
- (2) To promote the appropriate use of bio-based and biodegradable products through participation in development of standards, legislation, regulations, material guides and positive community interaction.
- (3) To promote scientific, economic and social research into the development of products, applications, and systems deriving from and using bio-based and biodegradable chemicals.
- (4) To represent in conjunction with other associations or similar legitimate entities, the manufacturers, converters, wholesalers, distributors, end users, consumers and processors of bio-based and biodegradable products in consideration of appropriate end-of-life and design on-merit and application characteristics for the products or materials.
- (5) To accurately portray the characteristics and benefits of the family of products, which are biodegradable and bio-based according to their applications.
- (6) To administer and uphold the Association's code of conduct which is executed by all members of the Association and ensure member's compliance with same.
- (7) To act as the communication focal point for media, government and non-government organisations (NGOs), environmental organisations, industry stakeholders and the public, on issues and education relative to bio-based and biodegradable products.
- (8) To educate and promote public awareness of bio-based and biodegradable products as available alternatives to existing products and to promote the use of these products.
- (9) To provide informed and considered information on behalf of members to genuine correspondents for the development of specific marketplaces.
- (10) To not engage in any anti-competitive activities or to in anyway way breach the appropriate or relevant provisions of any anti-competition local, national or European regulations and practices.

- (11) To promote certification programmes for consumer and B2B market recognition of products derived from bio-based and biodegradable chemicals

4. Financial year

The financial year of the Association is each period of 12 months beginning from the date of incorporation of the Association and may be modified by the Board after the first financial year.

PART 2—POWERS OF ASSOCIATION

5. Powers of Association

- (1) The Association has power to do all things incidental or conducive to achieve its purposes.
- (2) Without limiting sub Article (1), the Association may—
- (a) acquire, hold and dispose of real or personal property;
 - (b) open and operate accounts with financial institutions;
 - (c) invest its surplus funds in UK Government Treasury Bonds;
 - (d) raise and borrow money on any terms and in any manner as it thinks fit;
 - (e) secure the repayment of money raised or borrowed, or the payment of a debt or liability;
 - (f) appoint agents and staff to transact business on its behalf; (g) enter into any other contract it considers necessary or desirable; (h) effect and maintain insurance.
- (3) The Association may only exercise its powers and use its income and assets (including any surplus) for its purposes.
- (4) The Association may not enter into debt transaction for amounts exceeding annual membership fee income received in the previous financial year.
- (5) The Association may not take part in legal action against third parties without the unanimous support of the Board.
- (6) The liability of each Member is limited to £1 being the amount that each member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Association in the event of its being wound up while he is a Member or within one year after he ceases to be a Member.

6. Not for profit organisation

- (1) The Association must not distribute any surplus, income or assets directly or indirectly to its members.
- (2) SubArticle (1) does not prevent the Association from paying a member or a Board Member—
 - (a) reimbursement for expenses properly incurred by the member; or
 - (b) for goods or services provided by the member—

if this is done in good faith on terms no more favourable than if the member was not a member.

- (3) The Board may decide to allow compensation for specific Board member activities when mandated by the Board.

PART 3—MEMBERS, DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES AND GRIEVANCES

Part 1—Membership

7. Minimum number of members

The Association must have at least 7 members.

8. Who is eligible to be a member

Any person who supports the purposes of the Association is eligible for membership in the category of membership relevant to that persons' activities.

9. Membership Categories

- (1) Membership categories are established to ensure a Board membership representative of the many interests within and accompanying the bio-based and biodegradable industry sector.
- (2) Membership categories represent the industrial weight and involvement of specific sectors within the wider industry and membership fees are weighted according to category. Board membership is also weighted according to category.
- (3) These categories apply for the first three financial years after the incorporation of the Association and may be modified by the general meeting of members thereafter by a special resolution .
- (4) Persons applying for membership of the Association may apply under one of the following categories:

A. FOUNDER MEMBERS. These are the members present at the act of incorporation of the Association who agree to abide by the Associations' Articles and agree to the Associations' objectives and further undertake to:

- a) pay a Founder Fee and the first annual Ordinary Membership fee
- b) undertake, if possible under the policy or Articles of the relative Entity, to pay membership fees for three years
- c) promote the joining of new members

Founder membership is not applicable to Category (e) & (f) members.

B. ORDINARY MEMBERS. These are members who join after the incorporation of the Association and agree to abide by the Associations' Articles and agree to the Associations' objectives.

- (5) Each Founder Member or Ordinary member may apply for membership according to the following macro-categories of membership choosing which best represents the industrial sector the person belongs to.
- (a) producers or potential producers of bio-based/biodegradable chemicals will be referred to as Bio Chemicals Producers or Potential Producers;
 - (b) transformers of consumer of B2B products using bio-based/biodegradable chemical products will be referred to as Bio Products Convertors or Potential Convertors;
 - (c) financial companies, banks, investment agencies, government bodies, consultancies/experts working in related fields, suppliers to the industry of raw materials, technologies and instruments for the production of bio-based and biodegradable chemicals, the waste management sector, the retail and distribution sector, various industries and machinery producers will be referred to as Other Sectors;
 - (d) associations in fields related to the above mentioned industries, the farming community association bodies and academia and research will be referred to as Associations and Academia.
- (e) Small Businesses
- companies with annual turnover of less than £2,000,000.
 - once turnover exceeds this amount, Category (e) company members must become members of the relevant Category representing their activities.
- (f) Sole Traders
- Individual professionals active in the sector as sole traders with an annual turnover of less than £500,000.
 - Once turnover exceeds this amount, Category (f) members must become members of the relevant Category representing their activities.
 - Category (e) and (f) members have no voting rights in General meetings nor appoint a member of the Board.
- (6) Wherever an applicant has interests which do not coincide with the macro-categories listed at Article 9(5), the application should be made under the category "Other Sectors" specifying the activities the applicant undertakes.

10. Application for membership

- (1) To apply to become a member of the Association, a person must submit a written application to the Association stating that the person—
 - (a) wishes to become a member of the Association; and
 - (b) supports the purposes of the Association; and
 - (c) agrees to comply with these Articles.
- (2) The application—
 - (a) must be signed by the applicant giving full details of business address, activities relevant to the Association and name of the person responsible for relations with the Association within the firm/organisation; and
 - (b) is finalised only upon payment of the joining fee to be paid within 30 days of the written notice given of application approval by the Board.

11. Consideration of application

- (1) As soon as practicable after an application for membership is received, the Board must decide by resolution whether to accept or reject the application.
- (2) The Board must notify the applicant in writing of its decision as soon as practicable after the decision is made.
- (3) No reason need be given for the rejection of an application.

12. New membership

- (1) If an application for membership is approved by the Board —
 - (a) the resolution to accept the membership must be recorded in the minutes of the Board meeting;
 - (b) a person becomes a member of the Association and is entitled to exercise his or her rights of membership from the date on which the person pays the joining fee.
 - (c) once payment is received, the Managing Director must, as soon as practicable, enter the name and address of the new member, and the date of becoming a member, in the register of members.

13. Annual subscription and fee on joining

- (1) At each annual general meeting, the Association must determine—
 - (a) the amount of the annual subscription (if any) for the following financial year; and
 - (b) the date for payment of the annual subscription.
 - (c) the need for extraordinary contributions required for specific activities of the Association or to cover losses incurred during the previous financial year.
- (2) The Association may determine that any new member who joins after the start of a financial year must, for that financial year, pay a fee equal to—
 - (a) the full annual subscription; or
 - (b) a pro rata annual subscription based on the remaining part of the financial year; or

- (c) a fixed amount determined from time to time by the Association.
- (3) The rights of a member (including the right to vote) who has not paid the annual fee within the year to which the fee applies are suspended until the subscription is paid.
- (4) The annual membership fees are hereby determined as follows:-

Macro Category	Membership fee (annual)
Bio Chemicals Producers or Potential Producers	£10,000
Bio Products Convertors or Potential Convertors	£3,000
Other Sectors	£2,500
Associations and Academia	£1,000
Small Businesses	£1500
Sole Traders	£250

VAT may be applicable

14. General rights of members

- (1) A member of the Association who is entitled to vote has the right—
- (a) to receive notice of general meetings and of proposed special resolutions in the manner and time prescribed by these Articles; and
 - (b) to submit items of business for consideration at a general meeting; and
 - (c) to attend and be heard at general assemblies; and
 - (d) to vote at a general meeting; and
 - (e) to have access to the minutes of general assemblies and other documents of the Association as provided by these Articles; and
 - (f) to inspect the register of members.
- (2) A member is entitled to vote if—
- (g) membership is valid under article 12(1)(c)
 - (h) the member's membership rights are not suspended for any reason.
- In the first three financial years after the incorporation of the Association, only the Founding Members have the right to :
- (i) elect the Board members; and
 - (j) nominate the Managing Director of the Association

15. Rights not transferable

The rights, privileges or obligations of a member are not transferable and end when membership ceases.

16. Ceasing membership

- (1) The membership of a person ceases on resignation, expulsion or death.
 - (2) If a person ceases to be a member of the Association, the Managing Director must, as soon as practicable, enter the date the person ceased to be a member in the register of members.
 - (3) A Member may be expelled only by a decision made by a majority vote of the Board.

17. Resigning as a member

- (1) A member may resign by giving at least three months (or such other period as the Board may determine) notice in writing to the Association at its registered office address.

Note

- (2) A member is taken to have resigned if—
 - (a) the member's annual subscription is more than 12 months in arrears; or
 - (i) the Managing Director has made a written request to the member to confirm that he or she wishes to remain a member; and
 - (ii) the member has not, within 3 months after receiving that request, confirmed in writing that he or she wishes to remain a member.

18. Register of members

- (1) The Managing Director must keep and maintain a register of members that includes—
 - (a) for each current member—
 - (i) the member's name;
 - (ii) the membership category under which the member is registered;
 - (iii) the address for notice last given by the member;
 - (iv) the date of becoming a member;
 - (v) any other information determined by the Board; and
 - (b) for each former member, the date of ceasing to be a member.
 - (2) The register of members must be kept at the principal place of administration of the Association.
 - (3) Any member may, at a reasonable time and free of charge, inspect the register of members.
 - (4) A member of the Association may obtain a copy of any part of the register during ordinary working hours.

Part 2—Disciplinary action

19. Grounds for taking disciplinary action

The Association may take disciplinary action against a member in accordance with this Part if it is determined that the member—

- (a) has persistently failed to comply with these Articles; or
- (b) refuses to support the purposes of the Association; or
- (c) has persistently and wilfully engaged in conduct prejudicial to the Association.

20. Disciplinary Committee and hearing

- (1) If the Board is satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for taking disciplinary action against a member, the Chairman will nominate a Disciplinary Committee, constituted of one Founder Member and two Ordinary Members who have no common interests with the member involved.
- (2) The Disciplinary Committee will convene the member against whom disciplinary action may be applied within one month of being nominated, will hear the case against the member brought by the Association and will hear the member's defence.
- (3) The Disciplinary Committee will report to the Chairman on its findings and the Chairman will inform the relevant member.
- (4) Should the member wish, he may appeal the decision made, in writing, to the Chairman. The Association may not appeal the decision of the Disciplinary Committee.
- (5) The Chairman will report to the Board and the Board will make a final decision by simple majority and inform the member accordingly. No further appeal is permitted.

Part 3—General Meetings of the Association

21. Annual general meetings

- (1) The Board must convene an annual general meeting of the Association to be held within 5 months after the end of each financial year.
- (2) Despite subArticle (1), the Association may hold its first annual general meeting at any time within 18 months after its incorporation.
- (3) The Board may determine the date, time and place of the annual general meeting.
- (4) The ordinary business of the annual general meeting is as follows—
 - (a) to confirm the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and of any other general meeting held since then;
 - (b) to receive and consider—
 - (i) the annual report of the Board on the activities of the Association during the preceding financial year; and
 - (ii) the financial statements of the Association for the preceding financial year submitted by the Board ;
 - (c) to elect the members of the Board once the first three year limitation has expired;
 - (d) to elect a Treasurer, once the first three year limitation has expired;
 - (e) to confirm or vary the amounts (if any) of the annual subscription and joining fee as per article 13 (1)(a)(b)(c) once the first three year limitation has expired.
 - (f) the Boards' proposals for activities in the forthcoming year.

- (5) The annual general meeting may also conduct any other business of which notice has been given in accordance with these Articles.

22. Other general meetings

- (1) The Board may convene a general meeting whenever it thinks fit.
- (2) No business other than that set out in the notice may be conducted at the meeting.

23. A general meeting held at request of members

- (1) The Board must convene a general meeting if a request to do so is made by at least 25% of the total number of members.
- (2) A request for a general meeting must—
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) state the business to be considered at the assembly and any resolutions to be proposed; and
 - (c) include the names and signatures of the members requesting the assembly; and
 - (d) be given to the Managing Director.
- (3) If the Board does not convene a general meeting within one month after the date on which the request is made, the members making the request (or any of them) may convene the general meeting.
- (4) A general meeting convened by members under subArticle (3)—
 - (a) must be held within 3 months after the date on which the original request was made; and
 - (b) may only consider the business stated in that request.

24. Notice of General meetings

- (1) The Managing Director (or, in the case of a general meeting convened under Article 23(3), the members convening the assembly) must give to each member of the Association—
 - (a) at least 21 days' notice of a general meeting if a special resolution is to be proposed at the assembly; or
 - (b) at least 14 days' notice of a general meeting in any other case.
- (2) The notice must—
 - (a) specify the date, time and place of the assembly; and
 - (b) indicate the general nature of each item of business to be considered at the assembly; and
 - (c) if a special resolution is to be proposed—
 - (i) state in full the proposed resolution; and
 - (ii) state the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution; and (d)comply with other articles of this Article.
- (3) This Article does not apply to a disciplinary hearing.

25. Proxies

- (1) A member may appoint another member as his or her proxy to vote and speak on his or her behalf at a general meeting other than at a disciplinary hearing.
 - (2) The appointment of a proxy must be in writing and signed by the member making the appointment.
 - (3) The member appointing the proxy may give specific directions as to how the proxy is to vote on his or her behalf, otherwise the proxy may vote on behalf of the member in any matter as the person sees fit.
 - (4) If the Board has approved a form for the appointment of a proxy, the member may use any other form that clearly identifies the person appointed as the member's proxy and that has been signed by the member.
 - (5) Notice of a general meeting given to a member under Article 24 must—
 - (a) state that the member may appoint another member as a proxy for the assembly; and
 - (b) include a copy of any form that the Board has approved for the appointment of a proxy.
 - (6) A form appointing a proxy must be given to the Chairperson of the assembly before or at the commencement of the meeting.
 - (7) A form appointing a proxy sent by post or electronically is of no effect unless it is received by the Association at the latest 24 hours before the commencement of the assembly.

26. Use of technology

- (1) A member not physically present at a general meeting may be permitted to participate in the meeting by the use of technology that allows that member and the members present at the assembly to clearly and simultaneously communicate with each other.
 - (2) For the purposes of this Part, a member participating in a general meeting as permitted under subArticle (1) is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person.

27. Quorum at general meetings

- (1) No business may be conducted at a general meetings unless a quorum of members is present.
 - (2) The quorum for a general meeting is the presence (physically, by proxy or as allowed under Article 26) of 30% of the members entitled to vote.
 - (3) If a quorum is not present within 60 minutes after the notified commencement time of a general meeting—
 - (a) in the case of an assembly convened by, or at the request of, members under Article 23 —the assembly must be dissolved;
 - (b) in any other case—
 - (i) the assembly must be adjourned to a date not more than 21 days after the adjournment; and
 - (ii) notice of the date, time and place to which the assembly is adjourned must be given at the assembly and confirmed by written notice given to all members as soon as practicable after the assembly.

- (4) If a quorum is not present within 60 minutes after the time to which a general meeting has been adjourned under subArticle (3)(b), the members present at the meeting (if not fewer than 5) may proceed with the business of the meeting as if a quorum were present.

28. Adjournment of general meeting

- (1) The Chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of a majority of members present at the assembly, adjourn the assembly for a maximum of one hour at the same place.
- (2) Without limiting subArticle (1), an assembly may be adjourned to give the members more time to consider an item of business.
- (3) No business may be conducted on the resumption of an adjourned assembly other than the business that remained unfinished when the assembly was adjourned.
- (4) Notice of the adjournment of an assembly under this Article is not required but must be recorded in the minutes of the assembly.

29. Voting at general meeting

- (1) On any question arising at a general meeting —
 - (a) subject to subArticle (3), each member who is entitled to vote has one vote; and
 - (b) members may vote personally or by proxy; and
 - (c) except in the case of a special resolution, the question must be decided on a majority of votes.
- (2) If the question is whether or not to confirm the minutes of a previous assembly, only members who were present at that assembly may vote.
- (3) This Article does not apply to a vote at a disciplinary hearings.
- (4) Members of the Association may pass resolutions in writing.

30. Special resolutions

- (1) A special resolution is passed if not less than three quarters of the members voting at a general meeting (whether in person, by technology or by proxy) vote in favour of the resolution including the totality of Founder Members in the first three financial years after incorporation of the Association.

Note for example:

- (a) to remove a Board member from office ;
 - (b) to alter these Articles, including changing the name or any of the purposes of the Association.
- (2) The veto rights of Founder Members automatically cease from the end of the third financial year and with the approval of the annual accounts; any special resolution thereafter need only be passed by a simple majority of three quarters of the members voting at a general meeting.

31. Determining whether resolution carried

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Chairperson of a general meeting may, on the basis of a show of hands, declare that a resolution has been—
 - (a) carried; or
 - (b) carried unanimously; or
 - (c) carried by a particular majority; or
 - (d) lost—and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the assembly is conclusive proof of that fact.
- (2) If a poll (where votes are cast in writing) is demanded by five or more members on any question—
 - (a) the poll must be taken at the assembly in the manner determined by the Chairperson of the assembly; and
 - (b) the Chairperson must declare the result of the resolution on the basis of the poll.
- (3) A poll demanded on the election of the Chairperson or on a question of an adjournment must be taken immediately.
- (4) A poll demanded on any other question must be taken before the close of the assembly at a time determined by the Chairperson.

32. Minutes of general meeting

- (1) The Board must ensure that minutes are taken and kept of each general meeting.
- (2) The minutes must record the business considered at the assembly, any resolution on which a vote is taken and the result of the vote.
- (3) In addition, the minutes of each annual general meeting must include—
 - (a) the names of the members attending the assembly; and
 - (b) proxy forms given to the Chairperson of the assembly under article 25(6); and
 - (c) the financial statements submitted to the members in accordance with article 21 (4)(b)(ii); and
 - (d) the certificate signed by two Board members certifying that the financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the Association; and
 - (e) any audited accounts and auditor's report or report of a review accompanying the financial statements that are required by decision of the general meeting.

PART 4—BOARD OF DIRECTORSPart 1—Powers of the Board of Directors

33. Role and powers

- (1) The business of the Association must be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors (Board).
- (2) The Board may exercise all the powers of the Association except those powers that these Articles require to be exercised by general meetings of the members of the Association.
- (3) The Board —
 - (a) nominates and removes from among its members the Chairman and Vice Chairman;
 - (b) appoints and removes the Managing Director and Technical Director;
 - (c) establishes subcommittees consisting of members with terms of reference it considers appropriate.
 - (d) approves the annual accounts to be sent to the general meeting
 - (e) elaborates and approves the annual work plan of the association
 - (f) nominates and removes from its members the Treasurer, as per articles 35(4), 38(1)(d) and 38(3) for the first three years.

34. Delegation

- (1) The Board may delegate to a member of the Board, a subcommittee or staff, any of its powers and functions other than—
 - (a) this power of delegation; or
 - (b) a duty imposed on the Board by law.
- (2) The delegation must be in writing and may be subject to the conditions and limitations the Board considers appropriate.
- (3) The Board may, in writing, revoke a delegation wholly or in part.
for example, the Board may delegate to the Managing Director financial authority

Part 2—Composition of the Board and duties of members

35. Composition of the Board

- (1) In the first three years after the establishment of the Association, the Board consists of—
 - (a) three members elected by Category A members
 - (b) two members elected by Category B members
 - (c) one member elected by Category C members
 - (d) one member elected by Category D members
- (2) In the first three financial years following the incorporation of the Association, the Board is elected by Founder Members among themselves, respecting the above macro categories represented in the Association.
- (3) the Board, once constituted, at its first meeting elects a Chairman and Vice Chairman.

- (4) the Board, for the first three years, elects the Treasurer from among its members
- (5) at the end of the third financial year, the General meeting elects a Board from among its members, according to each category, by simple majority, as per articles 39-46.

36. General Duties

- (1) As soon as practicable after being elected or appointed to the Board, each Board member must become familiar with these Articles.
- (2) The Board is collectively responsible for ensuring that the Association complies with the law and that individual members of the Board comply with these Articles.
- (3) Board members must exercise their powers and discharge their duties with reasonable care and diligence.
- (4) Board members must exercise their powers and discharge their duties— (a) in good faith in the best interests of the Association; and (b) for a proper purpose.
- (5) Board members and former Board members must not make improper use of—
 - (a) their position; or
 - (b) information acquired by virtue of holding their position—

so as to gain an advantage for themselves or any other person or to cause detriment to the Association.

- (6) In addition to any duties imposed by these Articles, a Board member must perform any other duties imposed from time to time by resolution at a general meeting.

37. Chairman and Vice-Chairman

- (1) Subject to subArticle (2), the Chairman or, in the Chairman's absence, the Vice-Chairman is the Chairperson for any general meetings and for any Board meetings.
- (2) If the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman are both absent, or are unable to preside, the Chairperson of the meeting must be—
 - (a) in the case of a general meeting—a member elected by the other members present; or
 - (b) in the case of a Board meeting—a Board member elected by the other Board members present.

38. Treasurer

- (1) The Treasurer must—
 - (a) receive all moneys paid to or received by the Association and issue receipts for those moneys in the name of the Association; and
 - (b) ensure that all moneys received are paid into the account of the Association within 5 working days after receipt; and
 - (c) make any payments authorised by the Board or by a general meeting of the Association from the Association's funds; and
 - (d) ensure cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments are signed by at least 2 Board members or by Delegation by the Managing Director.
- (2) The Treasurer must—
 - (a) ensure that the financial records of the Association are kept in accordance with the law; and
 - (b) coordinate the preparation of the financial statements of the Association and their certification by the Board prior to their submission to the annual general association of the Association.
- (3) The Treasurer must ensure that at least one other Board member has access to the accounts and financial records of the Association.

Part 3—Election of Board members and tenure of office

39. Who is eligible to be a Board member

A member is eligible to be elected or appointed as a Board member if the member—

- (a) is 18 years or over; and
- (b) is entitled to vote at a general meeting.

40. Positions to be declared vacant

- (1) This Article applies to—
 - (a) the third annual general meeting of the Association after its incorporation; and
 - (b) any subsequent annual general meeting of the Association, after the third annual report and financial statements of the Association have been received.
- (2) The Chairperson of the assembly must declare all positions on the Board vacant and hold elections for those positions in accordance with these Articles.
- (3) Sixty days prior to the election of each position, the Chairperson of the assembly must call for nominations to fill that position and inform all members of nominations received 15 days prior to the assembly itself.
- (4) An eligible member of the Association may—
 - (a) nominate himself or herself; or
 - (b) with the member's consent, be nominated by another member.

- (5) A member who is nominated for a position and fails to be elected to that position may be nominated for any other position for which an election is yet to be held.

41. Election of Board members

- (1) At the annual general meeting, separate elections must be held for members of the Board representing each membership category;
 - (2) If only one member is nominated for each position, the Chairperson of the assembly must declare the member elected to the position.
 - (3) If more than one member is nominated, a ballot must be held in accordance with these Articles.
 - (4) Once the Board members are elected by the general meeting, at the first Board meeting convened by the outgoing Chairman, the Board elects a Chairman and Vice Chairman and Treasurer from among its members.

42. Election of Board members - Ballot

- (1) If a ballot is required for the election for a position, the Chairperson of the assembly must appoint a member to act as returning officer to conduct the ballot.
 - (2) The returning officer must not be a member nominated for the position.
 - (3) Before the ballot is taken, each candidate may make a short speech in support of his or her election.
 - (4) The election must be by secret ballot.
 - (5) The returning officer must give a blank piece of paper to— (a) each member present in person; and (b) each proxy appointed by a member.
 - (6) Each ballot paper on which the name of a candidate has been written counts as one vote for that candidate.
 - (7) The returning officer must declare elected the candidate or, in the case of an election for more than one position, the candidates who received the most votes.
 - (8) If the returning officer is unable to declare the result of an election because 2 or more candidates received the same number of votes, the returning officer must—
 - (a) conduct a further election for the position to decide which of those candidates is to be elected; or
 - (b) with the agreement of those candidates, decide by lot which of them is to be elected.

43. Term of office

- (1) A Board member holds office for three years and may be re-elected.
 - (2) A Board meeting or general meeting of the Association may—
 - (a) by special resolution remove a Board member from office if for example, it is held that he brings the Association into disrepute; and
 - (b) elect an eligible member of the Association to fill the vacant position in accordance with this Part.

- (3) A member who is the subject of a proposed special resolution under subArticle (2)(a) may make representations in writing to the Chairman of the Association (not exceeding a reasonable length) and may request that the representations be provided to the members of the Association.
 - (4) The Chairman may give a copy of the representations to each member of the Association or, if they are not so given, the member may require that they be read out at the assembly at which the special resolution is to be proposed.

44. Vacation of office

- (1) A Board member may resign from the Board by written notice addressed to the Chairman.
 - (2) A person ceases to be a Board member if he or she—
 - (a) ceases to be a member of the Association; or
 - (b) fails to attend 3 consecutive Board meetings (other than urgent Board meetings) without leave of absence ; or
 - (c) ceases to be a Board Member under the Companies Act 2006 (and any subsequent re-enactment) or prohibited by law
 - (d) resigns

 - (g) is unable to fulfil his or her duties in accordance with Article 36

45. Filling casual vacancies

- (1) The Board may appoint an eligible member of the Association to fill a position on the Board that—
 - (a) has become vacant; or
 - (b) was not filled by election at the last annual general meeting.
 - (2) The Board may continue to act despite any vacancy in its membership.

Part 4— Board Meetings

46. Board Meetings

- (1) The Board must meet at least 4 times in each year at the dates, times and places determined by the Chairman.
 - (2) The date, time and place of the first Board meeting must be determined by the members of the Board as soon as practicable after the annual general meeting of the Association at which the members of the Board were elected.
 - (3) Board meetings may be convened by the Chairman or by any 4 members of the Board.

47. Notice of meetings

- (1) Notice of each Board meeting must be given to each Board member no later than 21 days before the date of the meeting.
- (2) Notice may be given of more than one Board meeting at the same time.
- (3) The notice must state the date, time and place of the meeting.
- (4) The notice must include the general nature of the business to be conducted.
- (5) The only business that may be conducted at the meeting is the business for which the meeting is convened.

48. Urgent meetings

- (1) In cases of urgency, a meeting can be held without notice being given in accordance with article 48 provided that as much notice as practicable is given to each Board member by the quickest means practicable.
- (2) Any resolution made at the meeting must be passed by two thirds majority of the Board.
- (3) The only business that may be conducted at an urgent meeting is the business for which the meeting is convened.

49. Procedure and order of business

- (1) The procedure to be followed at a meeting of the Board must be determined from time to time by the Board.
- (2) The order of business may be determined by the members present at the meeting upon recommendation of the Chairman.

50. Use of technology

- (1) A Board member who is not physically present at a Board meeting may participate in the meeting by the use of technology that allows that Board member and the Board members present at the meeting to clearly and simultaneously communicate with each other.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, a Board member participating in a Board meeting as permitted under subArticle (1) is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person.

51. Quorum

- (1) No business may be conducted at a Board meeting unless a quorum is present.
- (2) The quorum for a Board meeting is the presence (in person or as allowed under article 50) of a majority of the Board members holding office.

- (3) If a quorum is not present within 60 minutes after the notified commencement time of a Board meeting—
 - (a) in the case of an urgent meeting—the meeting lapses;
 - (b) in any other case—the meeting must be adjourned to a date no later than 14 days after the adjournment and notice of the time, date and place to which the meeting is adjourned must be given in writing to Board members.

52. Voting

- (1) On any question arising at a Board meeting, each Board member present at the meeting has one vote.
- (2) A motion is carried if a majority of Board members present at the meeting vote in favour of the motion.
- (3) Sub Article (2) does not apply to any motion or question which is required by these Articles to be passed by two thirds of the Board.
- (4) If votes are divided equally on a question, the Chairperson of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
- (5) Voting by proxy is not permitted.

53. Conflict of interest

a. Declaration of interests

- (1) If a Board Member is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Association, he must declare the nature and extent of that interest to the other Directors.
- (2) In accordance with the Acts, the declaration may be made at a Board Meeting or by written notice.
 - i. If a declaration of interest proves to be or becomes inaccurate or incomplete a further declaration must be made.
 - ii. Any required declaration of interest must be made before the Association enters into the transaction or arrangement.
 - iii. A declaration is not required in relation to an interest of which the Board Member is not aware or where the Board Member is not aware of the transaction or arrangement in question. For this purpose a Board Member is treated as being
 - iv. A Board Member need not declare an interest:-
 1. if it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interests; or
 2. if, and to the extent that, the other Board Member are already aware of it (and for this purpose the other Board Members are treated as being aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware).

b. Authorisation of direct conflicts of interests

A Board Member may enter into a transaction or arrangement with the Association only if and to the extent that such an arrangement is authorised by the Board.

c. Authorisation of indirect conflicts of interest

- i. Where, for whatever reason, a Board Member has any form of indirect interest in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the Association (which shall include a conflict of duty) and the transaction or arrangement is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the Articles then it may be authorised by those Board Members not having a conflict provided that:-
 1. the Board Member with the conflict (and any other interested Board Member) is not counted when considering whether or not there is a valid quorum for that part of the meeting and does not vote in relation to the matter giving rise to the conflict; and
 2. the Board Members who do not have a conflict in relation to the matter in question consider it is in the best interests of the Company to authorise the transaction.
- ii. The Board Members who do not have a conflict in relation to the matter in question may, in their absolute discretion, determine that the Board Member with the conflict and/or any other interested Board Member should absent himself from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion concerning the transaction or arrangement giving rise to the conflict.

54. Minutes of meeting

- (1) The Board must ensure that minutes are taken and kept of each Board meeting.
- (2) The minutes must record the following—
 - (a) the names of the members in attendance at the meeting;
 - (b) the business considered at the meeting;
 - (c) any resolution on which a vote is taken and the result of the vote; (d) any material personal interest disclosed under Article 53.

55. Leave of absence

- (1) The Board may grant a member leave of absence from meetings for a period not exceeding 3 months.
- (2) The Board must not grant leave of absence retrospectively unless it is satisfied that it was not feasible for the member to seek the leave in advance.

PART 5—FINANCIAL MATTERS

56. Source of funds

The funds of the Association may be derived from joining fees, annual subscriptions, donations, fund-raising activities, grants, conferences, training, research activities, sponsorships, interest and any other legitimate sources approved by the Board.

57. Management of funds

- (1) The Association must open an account with a financial institution from which all expenditure of the Association is made and into which all of the Association's revenue is deposited.
 - (2) Subject to any restrictions imposed by a general meeting of the Association, the Board may approve expenditure on behalf of the Association in pursuance of the objects of the association in such a manner as the Board determines.
 - (3) The Board may authorise the Treasurer or by Delegation the Managing Director, to expend funds on behalf of the Association (including by electronic funds transfer) up to a specified limit without requiring approval from the Board for each item on which the funds are expended.
 - (4) All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments must be signed by 2 Board members or by Delegation by the Managing Director.
 - (5) All funds of the Association must be deposited into the financial account of the Association no later than 5 working days after receipt.
